The Municipal Election in Manchester to Be Quiet.

MESSRS. DAVIS AND PARRISH ILL

The Well-Known Citizens Seized Suddenly With Illness—Funeral of Mrs. Jane C. Campbell—Other Manchester News.

MANCHESTER, BUREAU RICHMOND TIMES. To-morrow is the day on which the candidates for office have to notify the Clerk of the Municipal Court of their intention to run for the different branches of the city government. From the present indications there will be but one opposition to the strait Democratic ticket. Mr. C. Stroud, the clerk yesterday that he would be a candidate for the City Council from the First Ward. He will oppose Mr. Simon Jones, the choice of the late primary. The general election will take place on Thursday, the 26th day of the present month. It promises to be very quiet.

TAKEN SUDDENLY ILL. Mr. P. L. Davis, of Eleventh and Deane streets, was taken suddenly ill at his home last night. At first it was thought he was a dying man, but Dr. Thomas P. Dorman was summoned, who relieved the sick man.

Mr. W. L. Parrish, an employee of the Southern shops, was also taken very ill at his work. He was taken to his home on Ninth and Porter streets, where he was treated by the family physician, who relieved the sick man.

MRS. CAMPBELL'S FUNERAL. The funeral of the late Mrs. Jane C. Campbell took place from Branch's church, in Chesterfield county, yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. R. H. Hatch, pastor of the Clifton Street Baptist church, conducted the service. The interment was made in the church burying ground.

Although the deceased was a comparatively stranger in this section, she had made a number of friends, who were present to pay their last tribute of respect. She came to Chesterfield a few years ago from the north.

HIS SKULL FRACTURED. Lewis J. Johnson, colored, late of this city, was struck on the head twice with a hammer by his office boy, Henry Mickey, in Roanoke, Monday night. His skull was fractured, No. 10. Mickey was taken to the hospital, where he was treated by Dr. W. L. Parrish, who relieved the sick man.

Johnson left this city about six months ago to engage in the insurance business in Roanoke. He is the son of Lewis Johnson, of Fifteenth and Porter streets. The wounded man was well thought of by all his white acquaintances in this city. He was very prominent among his race.

MRS. THORNTON'S DEATH. A letter was received at the home of Rev. L. R. Thornhill, giving Mrs. Thornhill's condition as being unchanged yesterday. Mrs. Thornhill, with her husband in visiting relatives at Bermuda, Antigua, and other islands, where she was taken ill with pneumonia.

DIED SUDDENLY. Mrs. Virginia Todd died suddenly at No. 177 Beulah street, at 10 o'clock this morning at 114 while sitting in a chair talking to a sick man.

Mrs. Todd left her home yesterday morning to visit Mr. W. H. Barrett, who has been ill for some time. While talking to him she was taken suddenly ill and fell from her chair to the floor. She was picked up and placed on a couch and Dr. W. L. Parrish was summoned. Before he arrived at her bedside she had breathed her last.

The remains were turned over to Messrs. A. Morrisette and son, who removed the body to her home at 114 Beulah street. Dr. John W. Brodhead, the coroner, was then notified.

Mrs. Todd was well known in this city. She was a native of Virginia and had been married to Mr. W. H. Barrett for many years. She was a devoted mother and a kind friend.

A FELONY CHARGE. Miss Mollie F. Packard appeared before Judge L. W. Cheatham yesterday morning and swore to a felony against Saunders McCulley, charging that he failed to redeem his promise of marriage.

He is a resident of Manchester, while the young woman in the case lives in Mark's addition adjoining the city. The charge against the young man is a felony.

MARRIED AT BEDFORD CITY. Mr. Julian C. Stinson and Miss Zeta Marshall were married at the Baptist church in Bedford City at high noon yesterday.

After the ceremony they took the northern train for an extended northern tour. On their return they will reside in this city.

The bride is well known in this city, where she has often been a visitor. She is a native of Virginia and has been married to Mr. Stinson for many years. She is a devoted mother and a kind friend.

Mr. Stinson is one of the best known young men in the city and his many friends will regret his departure. He is a native of Virginia and has been married to Miss Marshall for many years. He is a devoted father and a kind friend.

Quite a number of young people of this city and Richmond went up to attend the wedding. Mr. Dan Matthews was the best man and Mr. R. M. Matthews was the groom's best man. The wedding was a very quiet affair.

PAY YOUR TAXES. Mr. Charles Walker, the special tax collector, calls attention to the citizens to all city school and sewer taxes due for 1897. All who do not pay by the 25th of this month their property will be advertised in this paper on the 25th of June and sold in front of the Municipal Court house at public auction.

The law does not make any distinction and all who have not paid their taxes will be advertised.

SCHOOLFIELD CHOR. More than 100 of the musical people of Manchester assembled Tuesday night at Central church to rehearse the pieces which are to be sung at a Schoolfield cent meeting, to be held at 8 o'clock on Wednesday night, May 13, at the Union-Station church.

The director and he expressed himself as well pleased with the first practice.

The Methodist churches were most largely represented by their choirs Tuesday night, but the promoters of these meetings extend a cordial invitation to all the churches to take part.

And any who attend the rehearsals will receive a hearty welcome.

If the pieces sung and the rendering of them Tuesday night may be taken as indications of the future, there will be some inspiring singing at these meetings.

FEMALE BARBER. Manchester may not be up to date in a great many things but she is as far as one barber in particular is concerned or she might be called a barbers.

A few days since a stranger came to town and opened up what is generally called a barber shop. A few days since a stranger came to town and opened up what is generally called a barber shop.

BRIEF AND PERSONALS. Miss Coley Howell, of 121 Porter street, who has been absent from the city for the last two months visiting friends in Columbus, Miss., and Atlanta, Ga., has returned home.

Miss Lizzie Cooke, Miss Mary Harris and Little Miss Oona, of Powhatan Courthouse, are in the city the guest of Mr. John L. Goode, of No. 12 West Twelfth street.

Mayor Maurice had a case of drunk and disorderly before him yesterday morning. The sinner was penitent and the court fined him $25.

Mr. C. Petrol has returned from a pleasant trip to Washington, where he has been for the past several days.

The "little daughter" of Mr. L. Tomlinson, of Seventh street, has been dangerously ill with cerebro spinal meningitis. Dr. Ingram reports her as improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Gilbert have returned to the city from their bridal tour north. They will make their future home on Porter street.

JUSTICE JOHN.

A Wretched Mother Takes an Innocent Babe to Jail With Her.

"Hello, der!" said Fields Kenney to his friend Joe Gray.

"Hello, yo' self," said Joe.

"Whyn't yo' see," said Joe.

"Taint nuffin, ex'pt I loss fo' dollars in er game er crap, 'cause I didn't hab my rabbit foot wid me."

"Yo' doan yer de lek I dus," said Fields.

"How dus yer do?"

"I drinks it up, an' den I gits mer money's wuth."

And then Joe called Fields some awful names and cut him with a knife.

Not satisfied at that, Joe then went up to Rosa Belle Johnson and gave her a slap.

And when this was added up Joe found that he would have to remain in jail for ninety days for shipping Rosa Belle, and answer to a jury for cutting Fields Finny.

All parties concerned are colored.

Anna Ward, a dusky damsel, alleged that Willie Mack killed her some hard names.

Willie said he didn't mean to do it.

And Anna said that if Willie didn't mean to do it, then she was sorry that she charged him with doing it.

And the charge was dismissed upon the payment of $15 in costs.

Werner P. Jones went out on a quiet drunk and he wound up in the lock up, where he will remain for his security for his good behavior.

Wm. E. McGuire followed the example set him by Jones, and he was given the same dose.

Kate Kober is a middle-aged white woman with a three-year-old child.

Strong drink has conquered her, and no slave was ever treated worse by his iron-hearted master than is Kate Kober.

She dragged her master's baby through the fifth and sixth of the lowest resorts and dirtiest streets and it will only be a question of time when some drunkard will take her to a place far from the hardness, sin and strife of a life that lays before it.

Whiskey made the woman mad and irresponsible, and she created a disturbance in the neighborhood.

The result was that the Kober woman got sixty days in jail, and the little innocent babe will have to remain within the four walls of that undesirable place, while it should be in a healthy and fresh air.

A letter was received at the home of Rev. L. R. Thornhill, giving Mrs. Thornhill's condition as being unchanged yesterday.

Hard tack is not purchased except for use in an emergency, and it is believed that it will be taken into Cuba by the invading army this week. It is so made as to stand any climate and get better with age, no matter how long it may be kept. It has the advantage of being firm and crisp, and strengthening properties of wholesome bread.—New York Sun.
